B. Longevity: In addition to other benefits and compensation, eligible employees covered by this ordinance shall receive an annual longevity benefit in the amount of two percent (2%) of the annual salary for each consecutive four (4) years of service for the Borough of Dumont, except that in no case shall such sum exceed twelve percent (12%) of the annual salary. This sum shall be as part of the regular installments and be subject to retirement system deductions. Employees hired on January 1, 1990 or thereafter shall not be entitled to longevity.

C. The Tax Collector and Deputy Tax Collector shall be paid quarterly for tax search services upon presentation of requisition and properly executed bills at the rates established by previous ordinance.

D. Temporary and part-time employees shall be paid an hourly wage not less than Federal Wage and Hour minimum. Earned overtime shall be paid at one and one half (1 1/2) times the hourly rate.

E. Except as specified above, the salaries of all regular employees shall be paid in twenty-six (26) equal installments for the calendar year.

F. In addition to the salaries set forth herein, employees of the Borough of Dumont covered under this ordinance shall be entitled to those benefits specified in the Personnel Policy Manual for their respective positions.

G. Unless otherwise provided herein, the provisions of this section shall be retroactive to January 1 of the calendar year.

Section 2

If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of the Ordinance is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Ordinance.

Section 3

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby expressly repealed. However, any provision of Ordinance 1286 not discussed herein related to positions specifically not covered herein shall remain in effect.

Section 4

The Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon passage and publication as required by law.
